Hon. F. W. Lehman,
Solicitor General,
Washington, D. C.

My Dear Mr. Solicitor General:

Yesterday W. Bourke Cockran, Esq., served the enclosed Notice, Petition and Brief for Writ of Certiorari upon me. I gave no admission of service. The day previous he had been to see me and I had told him that I would not give any admission of service for the reason that the notice was too short.

Very truly yours,

United States Attorney.

My dear Mr. Wise:

I have yours of the 7th instant with copy of the petition for certiorari in the case of Morello v. United States. I was served with a copy here on Friday, and after looking over the petition I concluded that I could take care of it even on the short notice given, and so accepted service of the petition and filed a short memorandum in opposition, copy of which I send you. I do not believe that the writ will be granted. There isn't a shadow of a case made.

Respectfully yours,

(Signed) F. V. Lehmann.

Solicitor General.

My dear Mr. Solicitor General,

I have your letter of the 5th inst., (145199) and am also in receipt of copies of your memorandum in opposition to the petition for a writ of certiorari in the case of Morello. I sincerely trust that the Court will not grant the writ. It would be a great misfortune if there should be a reversal in that case, as the Government's witnesses have all disappeared and there could not be a retrial.

Sincerely yours,

H. S. Attorney.

My dear Mr. Wise:

Yours of the 10th instant is at hand. The court on yesterday denied the writ of certiorari in the Morello case, so that is at an end.

Respectfully yours,

Solicitor General.
