My always adored Giuseppe:-

We are all in perfect health, and I pray God that the present will also find you the same. Joseph of my heart, I let you know that I received all the clippings that you sent me, also the pictures. My Joseph, be content, because the days go by fast, and we hope in God that soon the day of our fortune will soon come. That day will be a day of felicity. Do not worry about our children because they are in good health. I wish you were present so as you could hear what our little Millie has to say. With kisses I am,

Your wife,

LINA MORELLO.

My always adored Joseph:-

We here all in perfect health, and I hope in God that the present will also find you the same. Joseph of my heart, to day we received your dear letter, and read all its contents. Joseph of my heart, regarding that which John wrote you is the whole truth. The reason we did not write you about it is that we wanted the papers in our hands, but the lawyer assured me that it is the truth, and he will soon have the papers in his hands. But you may be notified before hand. Kisses,

Your wife,

Lina Morello.

3rd.

Dear Brother:-

I learned all that which John said, and you are sore because the lawyer did not notified. We did want to but we did not permitt it because we did not want to shock you with the news, believing that you may take sick over the news, also we are waiting for the papers. We are anxiously waiting for your letters, because the lawyer said that you are perhaps notified before us, and I hope in God that this will be the case. Joseph dear, I beg you to expect this hour with calmness, and with a a firm heart. We are all well and hope you are the same. With kisses from all, I am,

Your sister, M. Morello.
